Hambourg, December 5.

WE have Advice, that Duke Charles Leopold of Mecklemberg died at Domitz the 28th paſt, N. S. in the Sixty Seventh Year of his Age.

Hague, Dec. 5, N. S. The Conduct of the Prince of Heſſe Philipſthal having been very much cenſured by the Publick upon the Loſs of Bergen-op-Zoom, he petitioned laſt Friday the Prince of Orange to appoint a Council of War, that his Conduct, and that of all the General Officers who commanded in Bergen-op-Zoom, may be immediately examined, and the Blame laid upon the proper Perſons. The Council of State petitioned laſt Week the States General for two Millions of Florins, in order to put their Navy in a better Condition. We are informed by Letters arrived this Day from Paris, that it was currently reported at the French Court, that no Reply would be made to the Reſolution of the States General, which was ſent in Anſwer to the Abbé de la Ville's Memorials.

Hague, Dec. 8, N. S. The Reſolution of the States of Holland for granting Commiſſions to private Ships of War, was carried the Day before Yeſterday to the States General, in Conſequence of which, it has been reſolved to apply to the Prince of Orange, as Admiral in Chief, to deſire him to grant the ſaid Commiſſions. M. Buteux, Deputy of Zealand to the States General, received laſt Tueſday an Expreſs from Middleburgh, with an Account, That the States of that Province had conformed in every reſpect to the Reſolution of the States of Holland for ſettling the Hereditary Succeſſion to the Stadtholderſhip. Nothing has yet been determin'd in that Province in regard to the Tax of Two per Cent. but it is generally believed it will meet with little or no Oppoſition. This laſt Affair is quite ſettled at preſent in Utrecht upon the ſame Footing as in Holland, with this Difference only, that the Times appointed for the Payment are not the ſame, tho' the whole Tax is likewiſe to be collected before the End of December 1748. The States General have approved the Propoſal of the States of Holland, and accordingly appointed Meſſ. Bentinck, Catwyck, and Haſſelaer, Plenipotentiaries for the Congreſs at Aix la Chapelle, to whom M. Van Haren the Younger is to be added at his Return from Switzerland. Count Fleming arrived here laſt Night in his Way to England.
